Theatres

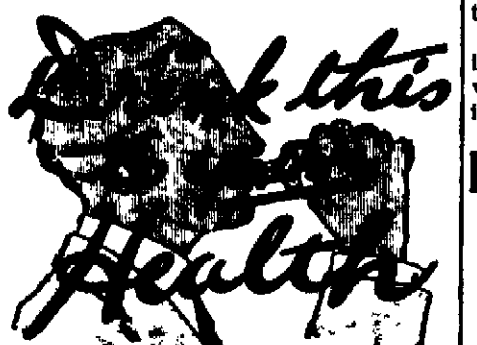

Nancy Boyer Opens at Auditorium. Nancy Boyer and her company, great favorites in Newark, opened a week's engagement at the Auditorium this afternoon to a large and delighted audience, presenting the Grace George comedy, "A Woman's Way." Nancy was at her best and most charmingly gowned in some of the fetching costumes for which she is famous. Tonight the laughing bit of Nancy's career, "Our Wives," secured by special arrangement with Charles Frohman will be the offering. This comedy admits of elaborate dressing, not only on the part of Nancy but the other women of the company. The play will be given a special scenic production, and will prove a treat for one and all attending. Daily matinees will be a feature of the engagement.

MacMillen in Columbus. In the variety of good things musically, which central Ohio has provided for itself, the music lovers of this community have noted with pleasure the announcement of the forthcoming appearance at Memorial hall, Columbus, O., Nov. 25, of Francis MacMillen, the eminent violinist; Edmund Burke, the famous Irish baritone, and Marie Hertenstein, the brilliant pianist, in joint recital. This is in fact a bargain sale of musical worth, as the price of admission is to be no higher than that which any one of the three artists would charge for their individual services.

The combination is only possible by reason of an advantageous arrangement made by T. T. Frankenberg, whose brilliant series of concerts last season were patronized by music lovers from Newark, and many other points fifty miles from the state capital.

Francis MacMillen, who has just escaped from the war zone of Europe, has played at once into a series of brilliant concerts arranged in advance for him. His violin playing is said to be more wonderful than ever before. Edmund Burke is recalled for the wonderful success he made last season in conjunction with Madame Melba and Jan Kubelik, violinist, with whom he shared all honors in their joint recital.

Chase of Newark, finished two-fifths of a second behind the winner of the cross country run of Ohio Conference teams at Cincinnati Sunday. Fall of Oberlin was third, Weber of Denison fourth and Roemer of Oberlin fifth.

Chase was awarded a silver medal offered for second position. He has been a prominent figure in Denison athletics, having made a splendid showing last season. He will be a tower of strength for Denison during the spring program of track events.

William H. H. Deenis, 50 German St., Newark, says: "I had such a bad back I couldn't work. If I tried to bend, a sharp stitch caught me and almost doubled me up. Nights I wasn't able to sleep from the dull pains across my loins and in the morning I couldn't put my shoes on. My wife often had to assist me to dress. The kidney secretions passed too frequently every night and got me out of bed. The secretions also contained heavy sediment. I failed to get any benefit from the different remedies I tried, until a neighbor told me about Doan's Kidney Pills. I used three boxes; the first didn't help me much, but the second did and the third made a complete cure. Today I am in good health and have a strong back."

LARCENY

IS CHARGE WHICH HENRY SIEGEL, BANKRUPT MERCHANT MUST ANSWER

In Loss of Millions, Defendant is Indicted for Theft of Less Than Seven Hundred Dollars.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Geneseo, N. Y., Nov. 9.—Henry Siegel, bankrupt banker and head of a New York department store that bore his name, appeared in the Supreme court here today to stand trial for grand larceny. The alleged offense was committed in New York, but Siegel succeeded in securing a change of venue so that he might be tried away from the host of New York creditors.

Arthur C. Train, assistant district attorney of New York and a corps of assistants brought into the court a quantity of documents and books taken from the office of the Siegel store and the private bank conducted in connection with it. Siegel is to be tried on an indictment charging him with the theft of less than $700.

The attorneys for the defense headed by John B. Stanchfield, of New York, and Charles D. Newton, of Geneseo, arrived in court shortly before Siegel, who came here from New York at midnight. Every hotel in this place was crowded with witnesses, attorneys, talesmen and others having an interest in the case. It was expected that two weeks would be required to complete the trial.

Frank E. Vogel, Siegel's associate in business, was to have been tried with him, but Vogel died suddenly in New York a few weeks ago.

FEDERATION OF LABOR BEGINS A 2 WEEKS' SESSION

(Associated Press Telegram)
Philadelphia, Nov. 9.—The thirty-fourth convention of the American Federation of Labor was opened here today to continue for two weeks. Prior to the assembling of the delegates there was a short street parade in which nearly all the delegates participated. The city of Philadelphia appropriated $25,000 to assist in defraying the expenses of the convention and in entertaining the delegates. A court of honor that stretched from the city hall to the convention place greeted the visiting delegates.

Jurisdictional fights which have featured some of the past conventions of the federation are likely to take up some of the time of the present gathering. The status of American employees in the Panama canal zone will also be discussed.

CHILDREN HATE PILLS, CALOMEL AND CASTOR OIL

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

SNOW SUNDAY ON ANNIVERSARY OF BIG STORM

The first snow fall of the season was that which started about noon Sunday and continued for several hours. It mingled with rain, but along towards the last the snow predominated. Large fleecy flakes, some as large as a silver dollar fell for more than 15 minutes.

The Sunday following election day a year ago was the day of the big storm when an official snow fall of 7 inches was recorded in Ohio. Telegraph and telephone service in the northern part of the state was practically paralyzed for a time.

In Newark little damage was done, though traffic was delayed until the heavy coat of snow was broken.

The snow storm of Sunday, followed an electrical storm which caused some damage in rural districts. The temperature dropped rapidly. Monday morning it was below freezing.

BERKMAN

WITH ANARCHISTIC COMPANIONS, ARRESTED IN NEW YORK POLICE STATION.

While protesting against the incarceration of several Others of His ilk.

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, Nov. 9.—Alexander Berkman and Becky Edelson led 20 anarchists into a police station early today to protest against the arrest of a short time previously of four of their number, Helen Goldblatt, known as Helen of Troy, her sister Lillian, William Shatoff and Abraham Blecker. The quartet was arrested after a free-for-all fight in the street between a band of anarchists and five policemen.

In the station house one of the five policemen identified Berkman as the man who had tried to wrest away his nightstick during the fight. Berkman was then arrested. His companions thereupon demanded that they, too, be locked up. The reserves were called and cleared the station house of Berkman's followers.

In police court the Goldblatt sisters, Shatoff and Blecker were found guilty and fined $10 each.

After hearing the story of the five policemen, the magistrate ordered the charge against Berkman changed to a felony charge.

Shipping from San Francisco via the canal jumped from $1,376,000 in August to $4,248,000 in September, and rose another million in October. New York got most of the cargoes, including wheat, barley, onions and prunes.

Home Conditions Responsible—Stories of White Slavery Largely Imaginary.

SILLY

MISS MARGARET E. LUTHER, SUPERINTENDENT OF THE FLORENCE CRITTENDON HOME, NEW YORK CITY, IN AN ADDRESS BEFORE THE INTERNATIONAL PURITY CONGRESS HERE TODAY, MISS LUTHER, WHO SPOKE ON "THE GIRLS WHO GO THROUGH THE NEW YORK COURTS," POINTED OUT THAT MOST OF THE GIRLS WITH WHOM THE COURTS HAVE TO DEAL ARE NOT MORE THAN 18 YEARS OF AGE.

"Statistics show that the larger number of girls who go wrong are not alone in the world," she said. "Nor are they all wage earners. Girls come to us from all stations and all conditions of life. In most of the cases the minds are polluted in early childhood. Home conditions are responsible. Out of 450 girls recently brought before the New York Women's Night Court 289 were not more than 18 years of age, while 116 of them were only 16 years old."

Stories of locked doors and barred windows in connection with white slavery are largely imaginary according to Miss Luther.

"The men who live on commercialized vice are the men you see standing on the street corners," she continued. "Their victims are usually silly little girls they win by wiles. And the girls thus enslaved, soul, mind and body, are worse than any physical slave. A judge recently told me that 60 per cent. of the men he had sentenced for white slavery were less than 22 years old. Home conditions are responsible for this situation."

WELSH IS 2 TO 1 FAVORITE FOR THE BOUT WITH WHITE

(Associated Press Telegram)
Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 9.—Fredie Welsh of Wales, lightweight champion pugilist of the world, was a 2 to 1 favorite in the betting today for his 10 round contest with Charley White of Chicago here tonight.

The champion, it was figured, would have a weight advantage of three or four and a half pounds over White at ring time as the Chicagoan was reported to be well under the 125 pound mark. The boxers have agreed to scale 125 pounds at three o'clock this afternoon.

Under the Wisconsin law there will be no decision.

WOMEN SHOULD TAKE WARNING

If the statement made at a New York Assembly of women, that healthy American women are so rare that they are almost extinct, is true, it is time for the women of America to take warning and look to their health. It may be headaches, backaches, dragging down pains, nervousness, mental depression, that are tell-tale symptoms of some organic derangement for which Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a simple remedy made from roots and herbs. It is a specific and may be relied upon to restore women to a healthy normal condition.

Just because a woman realizes that she is becoming to her is no reason why she should be green with envy.

Collecting Returns.

Methods of collecting election returns have made a great advance during recent years, since telephone lines have been pushing out into lonely neighborhoods.

A few years ago, a large part of the returns had their first relay in some farmer's wagon or livery team. A local newspaper or the city dailies would arrange to have some one hitch up old Dobbin, and drive to the nearest telephone instrument. If the votes didn't happen to get counted early, it might be morning before the cautious messenger felt like taking a journey over rough roads.

The efficiency of collecting returns varies greatly in different states and congressional districts. In some localities, newspapers and public officials make it a sporting event to get their news on the wire at the earliest possible moment. Complete returns from large and scattered districts are often secured by 6 p. m. of election day. In others, a habit of delay is common, which keeps candidates and the public on the anxious seat for days. It returns are close.

In most cases, there is no reason for slow collection of returns. In almost all remote districts the telephone is now so ubiquitous that a few hours' ride should connect with the news agencies. It would seem as if 99 per cent of the vote of every state ought to be on the wire at least the morning after election, so that complete returns should be in the newspaper offices in time for publication in the evening editions of Wednesday.

Newspaper correspondents should realize that they don't look handsome to the public when the results for districts for which they are responsible drag along needlessly. The public appreciates prompt returns. The election night crowd becomes familiar with the places in the habit of sending in slow returns. It has many a jolly laugh at sleepyhead counters and indolent messengers whose sloth holds back the news.

not enjoy driving behind her husband as well as she used to when machines were less numerous. He is a careful prudent man who runs at moderate speed.

"If you turn out and give the other machine a good wide berth," the woman went on, "the other fellow usually keeps right along in the middle of the road."

This is so irritating that many men will not turn until the last possible moment. Then a slight miscalculation, and all hands are in the ditch.

Automobiles have this year reached the point where if handled with judgment, they are as inexpensive as a horse and carriage. The isolation of the farm is broken, a source of pleasure, health, and profit, a wider horizon, is opened up.

But for careful people much of this pleasure is offset by the logs of the road.

Well travelled roads are infested with a tribe of daredevils, who ought not to steer any more dangerous vehicle than a plough. They think of a county highway as a race track, where they can show off their spectacular driving before the eyes of admiring rustics.

If a man escapes accident by a narrow shave, he considers it a closed incident, and rarely makes complaint. Motorists should join for their own self-protection, to give information against chronic speeders.

Will it not be necessary, as motors keep increasing, to have special road police, who shall obtain information about speeders, and file complaints? They could initiate proceedings without incurring ill-will, where the ordinary citizen dislikes to make a formal charge.

Time for Charity.

People interested in charitable work say there will be many appeals for help during the coming winter. Business has been very spotty. It is feverish in towns that supply anything usable by soldiers, flat in others. The fact that men working on army blankets are getting time and a half for overtime, does not help the worker who is shutting out of a job because of the shutting up of German trade.

With hunger abroad, lavish expenditures for luxuries appear more than ever heartless. It is true that hundreds of dollars spent on flowers or fancy ices for some Croesus banquet may put money in circulation and give employment. Also they would put just as much money in circulation, if they were devoted to buying flour and fuel for destitute people. And the thought of the gift would be a lasting satisfaction.

The inconceivable suffering of the people of Belgium and other European countries ought not to be overlooked. It is difficult to realize the conditions that there prevail. In the silent peace of our rural autumn scenes, in the busy murmur of industrial cities, it is hard to realize that anything exceptional or tragic is happening elsewhere.

Yet only a few days' journey from our shores, thousands of men are daily screaming in death travail. Their wives and children are homeless, and in the words of the Good Book, "destitute, afflicted, tormented."

A strong tie still binds the United States to Europe. They have given us their most active young men. Beginning by digging our ditches and reaping our harvests, they are climbing up to positions of substantial achievement. The prosperity they have helped bring us has drained the vitality of the old country. In Europe's hour of agony, it is but fitting that some generous return should flow back.

A few Newark people have already made contributions to various funds for the relief of Europe's destitute but no great amount has been raised here as yet. Plans are on foot for a charity ball which is to be given at Assembly Hall next Friday night for the benefit of the destitute women and children of Europe.

American Goods For Americans!

The Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs will, it is predicted, endorse the idea of American fashions for American people and also lend its support to the cotton skirt at the meeting to be held at Springfield on Tuesday. The idea is a good one. Any step that tends to emphasize the "Made in the United States" idea is good. Women's clubs and men's organizations of all kinds can help the movement along by going on record in favor of it or in favor of something that embodies the essential idea. Every little helps.—Chicago Herald.

"Copper King" Heinze.

The career of the late F. Augustus Heinze was an extraordinary composite of the good and bad in fortune-seeking. It was the career of a gentleman adventurer in whom were mixed many of the elements of an old-time "bonanza king" together with the methods of a political boss and the sharp practices of an unscrupulous captain of high finance. Only South Africa and the United States produce millionaires of the Heinze type, and not often one with his unusual personality and remarkable versatility.—New York World.

Another View.

F. A. Heinze rose very rapidly from a mining engineer at $5 a day to a great mine owner and a factor in New York finance. But as a self-made man there is not a great deal to say about him. Very soon after he learned the mining business a bequest of $50,000 enabled him to rent a mine, and he was very successful in mining. But he failed in the corner of copper which he undertook in 1907, the collapse of which had a good deal to do with the October panic.—Philadelphia Record.

There are too many men in this country who would rather sit around in the sun and cuss John D. Rockefeller than go out and hunt for a job.

The old-fashioned boy who used to have to do the chores before he went to school now has a son who gets highly indignant if he is asked to mail a letter on his way to the Temple of Learning.

A thin man has to stay thin. But a girl can buy a bale and wear a Peplum around her waist and be a Perfect 36.

A man will ruin one of his clean handkerchiefs wiping the dust off the shoes of the blonde he is joy-riding with. But if his wife uses one of his clean handkerchiefs to rub the shine off her nose he hollers murder.

There wouldn't be many divorces if a man was as well satisfied with his wife as he is with himself.

A Princess may get "pallure" in her examination in High School. But she never fails to pass the examinations in Dancing School.

It is a wise man who knows enough not to know it all.

LAMENTATION.

The melancholy days have come, the saddest of the year: our bank accounts are out of plumb, and all we buy is dear. I take down town my large green roll, that would a helper choke, but when I've bought my winter's coal, I find that I am broke. I seek my uncle's squalid den, where my greatcoat's in brine; alas, when I come out again, an empty purse is mine. In tears that from my eyelids leak, my whiskers are awash; it takes the wages of a week, to buy a Hubbard squash. When to the butcher's shop I snoop, for nice lean pork to fry, I always need a microscope to find the meat I buy. I draw good wages for a dish, but, by my halcyon, when I have bought my daily grub I haven't car fare home. In summer man himself can gar? in cheap and flimsy clothes, and he can eat the juicy yarb that in his garden grows; and he has small desire for meat, he lives on corn and grass, and he has no expense for heat, for kerosene or coal. But Autumn's nipping, eager air increases all his ills, and he has grief till in despair he kicks and breaks the shills. The melancholy days have come, the saddest of the year, when all the prices skyward hum and things are doubly dear.

Help the Stomach Digest Your Food

When the stomach fails to digest and distribute that which is eaten, the bowels become clogged with a mass of waste and refuse that ferments and generates poisons that are gradually forced into the blood, causing distress and often serious illness.

Most people naturally object to the drastic cathartic and purgative agents that shock the system. A mild, gentle laxative, positive in its effect that will quickly relieve constipation is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup of Pepsin, sold by druggists at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle. It does not gripe or cramp, but acts easily and pleasantly and is therefore the most satisfactory remedy for children, women and elderly persons. For a free trial bottle write to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 451 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

The Bal Poudre which has been planned for Friday evening of this week, and will be given at Assembly Hall, has met with instantaneous favor with the people of Newark. The ball was planned and all arrangements have been made by nine young women, and the purpose to which the proceeds are to be devoted has created a demand for tickets. The money derived from the ball will be sent to an organization in New York known as the White Cross, aptly named, as the Red Cross ministers to the wounded and soldiers, so the White Cross has been organized to aid the women and children of the war stricken European countries. The tickets have been placed on sale but two days and already nearly 200 have been disposed of. The hall will comfortably accommodate a much larger number than this and in the balcony will be placed tables for those desirous of playing cards. Those who are unable to purchase tickets from the young women will be accommodated at the door on the evening of the ball.

The young women who originated the idea are Misses Helen Wright, Hazel Altshool, Dorothy Beard, Virginia Dadsell, Bertha Fulton, Mary Sherwood Wright, Louise Norpell, Bertha Latimer and Juliet Besuden. The patronesses are Mrs. W. C. Miller, Mrs. Daniel Altshool, Mrs. Fred Wright, Mrs. E. C. Wright, Mrs. Edwin Besuden, Mrs. Frank Webb, and Mrs. David Cordray.

The Bal Poudre promises not only to be a delightful social success but the very worthiness of the cause for which it is being given should make it a success in every way.

One of the most enjoyable parties of the season was a surprise given Friday evening in honor of Miss Louise Myers at her home in Buckingham street by a few of her friends, the event being the birthday anniversary of the hostess. Music and games were the amusements of the evening.

Join In the Campaign For Better Babies

Every Mother is Invited to Bring Her Baby to our Infant Department Second Floor

Tomorrow and Wednesday

GIVE THE BABY A CHANCE !

Out of every five deaths in the great state of New York, one is that of a Baby less than five years old. Practically the same is true of every other state.

Uncle Sam is finally aroused to the great need of saving the Babies and our Government now supports a special Children's Bureau at Washington, for the purpose of finding out how to save the Babies and helping mothers, especially, to so care for themselves and their little ones that the great annual percentage of infancy deaths may be greatly reduced.

Every Baby born into the world is entitled to his or her chance to take part in this world's great drama; but many a genius has been snuffed out with a little Baby's life, often needlessly, because the little one was not given proper care—too often because mother did not know the best way of dressing, feeding and otherwise caring for a Baby.

Every mother has a right to thing that her Baby is a gift of Heaven, sent into this world to fulfill some special mission. Every mother has a right to know how best to take care of her Baby that he may have his chance to fulfill his life's mission, and mother can know if she will attend the lectures to be given by a trained nurse in costume, in our Infant Department, Second Floor, during the Baby

Days Festival, to be held at our store

Tomorrow and Wednesday

In these lectures, mothers will be told of the work being done by the Children's Bureau of the United States Department of Labor at Washington, and will also be told just how and where she can get the very best of books about the Care of Mother and Baby, absolutely without cost. We are doing everything in our power to make these Baby Days truly helpful to Baby and Mother. We want the best Babies in the United States, right here in our own town—but we cannot have them unless the mothers will help.

One of the very interesting features of the lecture to be given free to mothers, by the trained nurse in attendance, will be a demonstration of how to dress Baby without a single safety pin. No pin or button of any description need be used about the Baby.

Even the folks who haven't any Babies will be interested to see how it is done. You are welcome—come and see how to dress Baby in the wonderful.

(Special to The Advocate)

Granville, Nov. 8. About one hundred guests of the Travelers' club assembled in Recital Hall Saturday evening to enjoy the illustrated lecture on the Panama Canal, given by Prof. J. S. Kull, who was presented to the audience by the club's president, Mrs. W. E. Clemons, in her usual graceful manner. Prof. Kull's lecture was interesting, instructive and extremely realistic. SLEEP RESTORED BY NERV-WORTH

Four Days Treatment Cure South Second Street Resident—New Hold on Life and Hope.

"Before using New-Worth I was weak, nervous and had indigestion bad. Was very poor sleeper and got little rest when I did sleep. Would get up in the morning as tired as when I went to bed. Had awful headaches, too, and my legs hardly would carry my body. Was also very despondent and blue-out of humor most of the time. Began to take Nerv-Worth. After four days I am sleeping and resting well and when I get up in the morning I feel like a new man. My sleep refreshes me and life once more is worth living."

These are the exact words of John Paul Jones, who lives at 188 South Second street, Newark, and who wants friends and neighbors whose nerves are out of order to know what Nerv-Worth did for him. It would be hard for anyone to say more for a medicine than that it gave him restful and strength-restoring sleep at night. That is a common experience of those who use Nerv-Worth.

Are you troubled with Nervous debility in any of its forms—palpitation of the heart, indigestion, dizziness, trembling, indigestion, that tired, draggy feeling, sick or nervous headache, pains in back, sides or chest? Nerv-Worth overcomes them all. Sold on a guarantee at the T. J. Evans Drug Store, Hotel Warder Building.

Mr. Jones has not reached his country place, Ryan Du farm west of Newark, it being stated that he would not arrive until tonight.

According to announcement made at Cincinnati, a considerable sum of money will be spent improving the properties, particularly the docking facilities on the great lakes.

As was stated in Saturday's Advocate, the price paid by Mr. Jones was not made public. The price agreed upon by attorneys in the case, being submitted privately to the court, the figures being written on a slip of paper and passed to the court.

It is supposed that Mr. Jones will offer stock in the companies to other investors.

Chicago, Nov. 9.—Wheat prices eased today under moderate selling from professional speculators. The whole trade seemed to be in a waiting attitude. After opening 4 1/2 to 5 1/2, the market suffered a general decline. Corn business quiet, pending the issuance of the government report this afternoon. The attention turned more to the expected liberal size of the crop and to get up that farm reserves would prove to be light. Opening prices which ranged from 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 were followed by a setback at 2 1/4.

Amended.
Thackeray tells of a peasant woman begging alms from him, who, seeing him putting his hands in his pockets, said: "May the blessings of Providence follow you, but when he only pulled out his snuffbox he immediately added, 'and never overtake you.'"

Three persons were arraigned before Mayor Biebel Monday morning on a charge of allowing their chickens to run at large, which is a misdemeanor under the city ordinances. In these three cases numerous complaints had been filed with the police and efforts of officers to get the owners to keep the poultry confined were of no avail so the trio was arrested. Mayor Biebel dismissed the cases upon the promise of the owners to observe the law in the future. A 17-year-old youth, arrested for being drunk and using profane language, was sent to the juvenile court. Three drunks and three loiterers drew nominal fines.

Soaring Prices
The trend of the average price of commodities is upward and promises to be upward for quite a time. The European war is not the only reason for the upward trend. Those business men who regularly read our basic Trade Reports know why certain prices would have advanced this Fall if there had been no war in Europe.

We shall be glad to furnish these Reports to any business man in this city who is not now on our mailing list.

RACERS STARTED ON DRIVE OVER VERY BAD ROADS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Los Angeles, Nov. 9.—Twenty cars left Los Angeles today on the seventh annual road race to Phoenix, Ariz. A heavy downpour starting at 3 a. m. turned streets and roads into water courses, but that hardly diminished the speed of the racers at the start.
The first car, manned by T. J. Beaudet at the wheel and M. McConners as relief driver, started at 5:30 o'clock. The others followed at two minute intervals.
Three days of varied driving over speedway, desert, mountain and unbridged streams face the pilots and 673 miles of the hardest racing the "desert classic" has ever offered will be divided into three spurts.
Tonight the racers will go into control at Needles, Calif., 303 miles away. Tuesday night they will rest at Prescott, Ariz. Wednesday morning they will make the last dash of 134 miles for the money prize of $6750, and for the medal and title of "master driver of the world," the reward of the Phoenix winner.
Barney Oldfield, Louis Nikrent, Olin Davis and Louis Chevrolet are among the drivers. For Chevrolet this marks his return to the racing game after an absence of four years.
The five leaders made the first sixty miles in an hour and a half. William Pink, who started eighteenth, was badly hurt 15 miles out of Los Angeles when his car skidded into a ditch. He was taken to a hospital in San Bernardino, while his place at the wheel was taken by his assistant, Ely.

PRIMARY

LAW FOR PRESIDENT WILL NOT BE INSISTED UPON BY WILSON

At Next Session of Congress—Expected to Call on Extra Session in Spring.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Nov. 9.—President Wilson does not expect a presidential primary law to be passed during the next session of congress and some Democratic leaders do not believe one can be enacted to be effective in 1916. In his message to congress last December, the president urged that such a law be passed immediately, and expressed hope that there would be a general agreement to it. He is known to still favor primary law, but investigation has impressed on him the difficulties of the technical details.
The chief difficulty encountered by the president has been that of fixing a date for the presidential primaries. Primaries now are held on different dates in the state, and the question has been whether the legislatures can change the state primary dates before 1916. Separate state and national primaries, he has been told, would prove very expensive.
The president has not yet begun work on his next message to congress, but it is considered doubtful whether he will mention the presidential primary question. He is expected to dwell on the necessity for economy in appropriations and to urge the passage of the Philippine bill, the Alexander ship purchase bill and several remaining conservation measures.
Presidential primaries, rural credits, railway securities and other questions are expected to be left over because of the brief duration of the session. The president now has no intention of calling an extra session after March 4.
The general expectation of Democratic leaders is that presidential primaries, although provided for in a number of states, will play an important part in the 1916 campaign, but that the final choice of the party nominees will be made again at conventions.
The administration was endorsed at several Democratic state conventions prior to the congressional elections and the friends of the president are already at work with his re-nomination in mind.
As a result of gains the Republicans made last week politicians here are discussing the names of numerous party leaders as possible presidential candidates. The presidential primary question plays an important part in such discussions.

DAIRY FARMING FEATURE SUBJECT AT ALEXANDRIA

Dairy farming will be featured at the Agricultural Extension School that will be held at Alexandria during the week beginning November 16-20. This is the subject in which the people of this community expressed a special interest and for this reason the College of Agriculture will give particular attention to this subject at the Extension School. Dairy farming is not the only type of farming in this community, but it is one type that will pay desirable returns if carried on as it should be. A week spent at the Extension School will give each farmer an opportunity to learn the requirements and possibilities of dairy farming.
In addition to the dairy farming demonstrations and lectures will be given on soil fertility, farm crops, poultry raising, and home economics. It will be the aim of the instructors at the Extension School to give the farmers and their families such instruction as will assist them in applying the most economical practices on their farms and in their homes.
Dairy farming is becoming of greater importance in Ohio each year and Mr. L. P. Bailey, one of the most practical, successful and energetic, and enthusiastic dairymen in the state will be the instructor in this subject. Do not forget the date of the school. Talk it over with your neighbor.

Reports were flashed to life savers at sundown last night that a boat, supposed to be a freighter, was ablaze about 25 miles off Lake Blue, 25 miles north of this port. A score of tugs and life savers rushed to the rescue. No trace of a distressed steamer, however, was found.
Captain Carlin of the Chicago station said he believed the report was started by persons who mistook the red glow of the setting sun, reflecting through clouds onto the lake, for "flames."

LIFE SAVERS ARE MADE VICTIMS OF PRACTICAL JOKERS

TUBERCULOSIS FIGURES FROM MANY CHURCHES

One Funeral in Every Ten Among Members Due to Consumption—Study of 3000 Churches.

In an effort to ascertain how serious a problem tuberculosis is to the average church congregation of the United States, The National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis publishes today a report which shows that in nearly 3000 churches in 37 different states one funeral in every ten is due to this single disease.

Through a questionnaire sent out all over the country, 2852 clergymen representing 1,601,300 communicants or parishioners gave replies telling at how many funerals they officiated for the year ending Aug. 31, 1914; how many of these were due to tuberculosis; how many living cases of tuberculosis they now have in their parishes, and how many communicants or parishioners. There were 36,784 deaths from all causes reported, showing a death rate of 229.4 per 10,000 population, which is considerably higher than the corresponding rate for the entire country, 128.7 in 1912. This high death rate is probably due to the fact that pastors of churches officiate at many funerals of others than members or communicants, while their membership reports are taken from actual records.

As indicating the extent of the tuberculosis problem in the average church the figures show that 10.3 per cent. of all the funerals reported were caused by tuberculosis, and that in addition to the 3794 deaths from this disease, the ministers had 1274 living cases now under their pastoral supervision. In one year, therefore, the 2852 churches were caring for 8048 cases of tuberculosis, or an average of nearly three for each congregation. The average size of the congregations was 56, which would indicate that there is a case of tuberculosis developing each year for every twenty church members.

Because tuberculosis demands so much time and money from the churches, The National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis is calling upon all of them throughout the United States to join in an educational campaign against this disease on Tuberculosis Day, which will be observed during the week of November 29.

Injury of Half Back Jones Is Cause of Newark's Defeat Saturday by Delaware High

Just when the Newark High School team was going nicely in Saturday's game with every prospect of winning, Half-back Jones suffered an injury which made his retirement from the game a necessity and from that moment, the fate of the Newark team was sealed. When Jones went to the sidelines, the spirit of the Newark team went with him and Delaware profited by their lack of spirit, scoring a touchdown and a goal from the field, totaling 9 points while Newark registered six, on a touchdown scored before Jones left the game.

During the first and second quarter the game was evenly played. Newark was fortunate in scoring when they did, the Delaware team showing a stubborn defense. Attacks on the line were of little value to Newark and only when the ends were skirted were consistent gains made.

In the second quarter, Warner recovered a punt and made a nice return of the ball, taking it well into Delaware's territory. A series of plays brought the ball close to the Delaware line and Easterday carried the ball over in an attack through the left tackle position.

On the first play after the kickoff which followed, Jones made a 12 yard run around the Delaware left end. He was tackled near the sidelines, and fell to his knees. As he was ready to get to his feet, another Delaware man fell upon his head, forcing Jones head suddenly to the ground. The muscles of his neck and back were strained badly.

Flecker was substituted for Jones and soon after scrimmage was started, Delaware held Newark for downs and got possession of the ball. From this time on, the fight was mostly in Newark territory. Line attacks being futile, Delaware resorted to the forward pass and made a number of good gains. On one of these plays, Reid took a pass from Callendar, going over the line for a touchdown. Jones failed to kick goal, leaving the score a tie, 6 to 6.

On the kickoff, the Newark man was tackled within the 20 yard line and Easterday immediately called for a punt, to let the ball out of Newark territory. The punt was too high to make any distance and Delaware got possession of the ball on Newark's forty yard line.

Advancing the ball to the 20 yard line Thompson fell back for a kick and placed the ball over the bar for a field goal, adding three points to the Delaware score.

Newark's efforts during the rest of the game were confined to keeping the ball away from the Newark goal. Kicking was frequent on the part of both teams. The game ended with the ball in the center of the field.

GERMAN CRUISER FEARED JAPANESE IS NOW INTERNED

(Associated Press Telegram.) Washington, Nov. 2.—Interned for the remainder of the war, the little German cruiser Geier was held up at Honolulu today, having been ordered not to risk battle with the Japanese squadron that awaited her outside the harbor. The Geier reached Honolulu three weeks ago for repairs, and the American government was compelled to limit time limit on her visit. After that expired the cruiser's commander was given an additional 24 hours to determine whether or not he could remain in Honolulu for the remainder of the war, or risk an engagement with the powerful Japanese cruisers. The Berlin government ordered the cruiser interned.

"They pushed a vigorous turning movement, and on Saturday the right wing of the Turkish army, and the Turkish divisions, moved again and again, were repulsed, compelled to take to flight. First their left wing retired, and then the whole force followed. They are now in refuge in the mountainous region and upon our advance to the scene of the attack."
